

Green Bay Marriage Encounter

We hear people say all the time that they support the troops, and we do as well. Green Bay Marriage Encounter has decided it is time to act by offering free marriage encounter weekends to all military personnel.

The stress on a marriage in today's world is tough already; add the stress of long separations to that, and we realize our military families really face a tough task when trying to keep their marriages intact. By offering the weekends for free, we are trying to eliminate any barriers that couples may have to attending a weekend. And who better deserves a weekend together? Our sons and daughters have been called to foreign lands to fight terrorism. Hundreds of thousands have answered the call of duty and thousands have paid the ultimate sacrifice, so that we may live in a world of democracy and freedom from terror. In the past many of you have also answered that call, and you have the thanks of a grateful nation for your service to our country.

Green Bay Marriage Encounter is a Christian based, ecumenical program whose goal is to help couples realize the necessity of keeping God in their marriages. We teach techniques that will help couples strengthen their marriages and their love for each other.

For weekend registration information please contact: Dennis & Sue Amtmann, 943 Harwood Avenue, Green Bay, WI 54313, (920) 544-5166 or visit our website at www.gbme.org

Thank you for your service to your nation.
